

Political Risk & Terrorism

Ascot is a specialist in all Political Perils and has one of the most respected teams in the Lloyd's market. With a wealth of experience and expertise we have built an account that is considered pre-eminent.

Since we began in November 2001 we have led the market with solution-driven underwriting, winning a reputation for service and reliability. Our flexibility of approach and experience of emerging markets and broader Political Risk perils are crucial in delivering effective underwriting, with our focus on political violence and terrorism. We pride ourselves on swift resolution of claims and in being able to react quickly to difficult post loss environments, alongside our clients.

In the developed world the standalone market for terrorism has come a long way. During a period of rapid evolution Ascot has remained at the fore. Our in-house aggregation systems and client-focussed solution-driven underwriting have made us a true market leader.
